Lesson Cancellation Policy

A minimum of 24 hours notice must be given for all lesson cancellations.

Prepaid Lessons:

Cancellations of prepaid lessons without appropriate notice will be forfeited. Prepaid lessons canceled with appropriate notice will be offered a make-up lesson within the coach's schedule. All make-up lessons must be used within the month of the canceled lesson or they will be forfeited. No prepaid lessons will be carried over month to month with the exception of extended illness or injury with medical documentation. Cancellations of prepaid lessons with appropriate notice made on the last three days of the month will be offered a make-up lesson within the following week. Any makeups not used in this time frame will be forfeited.

Pay-As-You-Go Lesson:

Cancellations made without appropriate notice will be charged in full. Payment for the canceled lesson must be made prior to the next scheduled lesson or riding will not be permitted. Pay-As-You-go lessons canceled with appropriate notice will be offered a make-up lesson according to availability

Extraordinary Circumstances:

- In case of emergency, less than 24 hours notice may be accepted at the discretion of the coach. A make-up lesson will be offered within the month.
- In the case of a suddenly lame, injured or sick, privately owned horse, a make-up lesson on an SRS school horse will be offered, within the month.

PAYMENT: All packages are to be paid in full by the 5th of the month.
